General
Telekom attaches great importance to protecting your personal data. We inform you what personal data we collect, how your data is used, and the options available to you.

Where can I find the information important to me?
This General Data Privacy Information provides an overview of the aspects that generally apply to the processing of your data by Telekom.

Additional information on data privacy associated with the use of our products, particularly regarding the intended purpose, deletion periods etc., can be found in the data privacy information for that particular product at www.telekom.de/datenschutzhinweise and in the Telekom Shop.

On what legal basis does Telekom process my data?
We process your data in line with the regulations of European and German data privacy laws (the regulations cited below refer to the EU General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR), i.e. only to the extent that and insofar as data privacy laws (the regulations cited below refer to the EU General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR) or national law apply.

- it is necessary for performance of a contract with you or to carry out steps at your request prior to entering into a contract (Art. 6 sec. 1b GDPR) or
- you have given your consent to the processing of your data (Art. 6 sec. 1a GDPR) or
- processing is necessary in order to protect our own or third party legitimate interests, e.g. in the following cases: to assert claims, to defend our interests in lawsuits, to recognize and eliminate misuse; to prevent and investigate criminal offenses; to ensure secure IT operations at Telekom; consulting services (consulting companies); Art. 6 sec. 1f GDPR. Or
- for compliance with legal requirements, e.g. the retention of documents for commercial and fiscal purposes (Article 6 sec. 1c GDPR), or where it is in the public interest (Article 6 sec. 1e GDPR). Or
- The processing for another purpose occurs in order to anonymize data so that the personal reference is dropped (Art. 6 sec. 4 GDPR)

What are my rights?
You have the right:

a. to demand information regarding the categories of data being processed, the purpose of processing, the recipients of the data, and the planned duration of data storage (Art. 15 GDPR);
b. to demand the rectification or completion of inaccurate or incomplete data (Art. 16 GDPR);
c. to withdraw your consent at any time with future effect (Art. 7 sec. 3 GDPR);
d. to object to data processing on the basis of a legitimate interest based on your particular situation (Art. 21 sec. 1 GDPR);
e. in specific cases as outlined in Art. 17 GDPR, to demand the erasure of data, particularly where the data is no longer necessary for the intended purposes, or was processed unlawfully, or you have withdrawn your consent in accordance with (c) above, or have objected to data processing in accordance with (d) above;
f. under certain circumstances, to demand the restriction of data processing, to the extent that erasure is not possible, or the obligation to erase data is disputed (Art. 18 GDPR);
g. to data portability, i.e. you may receive your disclosed data in a commonly used, machine-readable format, such as CSV, and where applicable, transmit it to others (Art. 20 GDPR)
h. to complain to the competent supervisory authority (for telecommunications contracts: the Federal Officer for Data Privacy and Freedom of Information; in other cases: the North Rhine-Westphalia Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (LDI NRW)).

Does Telekom conduct credit checks and does it collaborate with credit agencies such as Schufa?
Before signing a contract, Telekom will carry out a creditworthiness check for services which are invoiced at a later date, in order to protect itself from non-payment. To check your creditworthiness, we use data about you personally and your payment history with existing contracts, including those with other companies in the Telekom Group. Such data include your name, address, date of birth and customer number; the duration of your order history, payment settlement and sales figures. If the data available is insufficient to carry out such a check, we will also obtain information from credit agencies and debt collection companies, and will share with them your name, address, date of birth and IBAN. Where data is received from credit agencies or debt collection companies in order to carry out a credit check, the purpose of processing is to prevent and investigate criminal offenses; to ensure secure IT operations at Telekom; consulting services (consulting companies); Art. 6 sec. 1f GDPR. Or

We collaborate with the following credit agencies and debt collection companies:

- SCHUFA Holding AG; CRIF GmbH; infoscore Consumer Data GmbH; Creditreform Boniversum GmbH; Creditreform Bonn Domsche & Rossen KG; Binnode Deutschland GmbH; EOS Deutscher Inkasso-Dienst GmbH; KSP Kanzlei Dr. Seegeis; Dr. Frankenheim-Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH; Sirius Inkasso GmbH; Inkasso Teich Forderungsmanagement GmbH; Intrum Deutschland GmbH.

We save the results of a credit check for one year.

Article 6 (1b) and Article 6 (1f) of the GDPR set out the legal basis for these forms of data processing.

Additionally, we share personal data obtained within the context of the contractual relationship during the course of applying for, executing and terminating a contract, as well as any data about non-compliant or fraudulent behavior, with SCHUFA Holding AG and CRIF GmbH.

Article 6 (1b) and Article 6 (1f) of the GDPR set out the legal basis for these forms of data processing.

SCHUFA and CRIF process the data received and also use it in a scoring process to supply their contractual partners in the European Economic Area and Switzerland, and where applicable other third-party countries (where the European Commission has decided that there is an adequate level of data protection), with information. This may also include an assessment of the credit-worthiness of natural persons. Regardless of credit scoring, SCHUFA assists its contractors with profile formations in identifying conspicuous facts (e.g. for the purpose of fraud prevention in mail order). For this purpose, an analysis of requests from SCHUFA contractors is carried out in order to check them for potential abnormalities. In this calculation, which is made individually for the respective contractor, also address data, information whether and in what function in generally accessible sources an entry on a person of public life with matching personalies, where necessary we will additionally employ a scoring system and use it to calculate the probability of a customer meeting his contractual payment obligations. Scoring is based on a trusted, recognized mathematical-statistical procedure.

Will my data be used for advertising or market research purposes?
We use your personal data for advertising or market research purposes if you have given your consent; you may withdraw your consent at any time for the future. The opportunity of withdrawing your consent is also pointed out to you when we obtain it.

Alternative provisions apply when you are online, so when you are surfing our website or using our apps. Information on the relevant provisions can be found in the data privacy information for the respective online services.
Who does Telekom share my data with?
With so-called commissioned data processors, i.e. companies we have contracted to process data within the relevant statutory framework, see Article 28 of the GDPR (assistant, auxiliary persons). In these cases, Telekom is still responsible for protecting your data. We subcontract to companies mainly in the following areas: IT, sales, marketing, finance, consulting, customer service, human resources, logistics, printing.

With cooperation partners who provide services on your behalf or in conjunction with your Telekom contract at their own responsibility. This applies if you have requested the services of such partners from us, or if you consent to the involvement of a partner, or if we involve the partner on the basis of a lawful permit.

On the basis of our statutory legal obligations: In selected cases, we are legally obliged to transmit certain data to the requesting government agency. Example: Upon presentation of a court order, we are obliged under § 101 of the German Copyright Act (Urheberrechtsgesetz) to provide the owners of copyrights/ancillary copyrights with information about customers who have allegedly offered copyrighted works via Internet file sharing services. Telekom additionally seeks cooperation with other service providers (e.g. Smart Home Services). If you are also a user of these services, you can connect your respective account with them. You must carry out this connection separately for each service. As soon as you have carried out a connection, the personal data that is listed in these data privacy notes can be used from your respective account for the appropriate service. The relevant service provider will inform you about the processing of your personal data.

Where is my data processed?
Your data will be processed in Germany and Europe. Partially your data is processed in countries outside of the European Union (so-called third countries), for the time being e.g. Storage /hosting of customer data (except for traffic data) through Amazon web services EMEA SARL, Microsoft Ireland Operations Ltd and Salesforce.com Germany GmbH in Europe. Only administrator-accesses within the framework of a technical support are possible from USA.

If any other data processing takes place in a third country this will be because you have given your explicit consent, or because it is necessary for performance of our contract with you, or because the law so permits (Art. 49 GDPR). Above and beyond this, your data will only be processed in third countries provided certain measures are taken to ensure an adequate level of data privacy (for example, an adequacy decision by the EU Commission or appropriate safeguards, Art. 44ff. GDPR, see here).
